“ Missing you already, Herman. Our thoughts of love & shared loss go out to Sharilyn, Mrs. Ella, family & Staff at Trinity WW Ministries. Herman"s dream for the community, anchored by the Church, is his legacy to us all in Charleston. He was a tireless worker in The Lord"s vineyard. May his legacy live on in our community on the foundations he planted!

“ Although it has been a few years since I had seen him. Herman Robinson was a customer for many years. I would also call him a friend. I knew him to be a Man of God and typically this would lead to discussions when he was here. I know that no man is perfect but I REMEMBER Rev Robinson as a MAN AFTER GOD'S HEART.

“ This devoted servant of the Lord touched countless lives. He told me that one night, the Lord urged him to pray for the protection of the city of Charleston. Herman went to the Four Corners of the Law around midnight, got down on his knees, and prayed fervently for spiritual and physical protection of our fair city. His prayers covered us and will continue to cover us, through the tragedy of Mother Emmanuel and beyond. Let us all join Herman in this spirit by continuing to pray for brotherhood and spiritual revival in Charleston.

“ As C.S. Lewis wrote, "humility is not thinking less of yourself, but thinking of yourself less". If ever I have met a humble servant of God it was Herman. His God giving strength touched so many of us, and he will be missed on this earth. But the saints are rejoicing with his arrival in Heaven!

We love you brother,

“ Haven gained a beautiful angel. I was Herman's classmate at Virginia Union. He was the most compassionate kind caring God fearing man I have had the pleasure of meeting. I know he will be missed by all. I extend my condolences and prayers during this time. Peace and Love Deatrice Shelton-Taliaferro #VUU4LIFE

“ I met Herman at the Exchange Club of Charleston and he immediately became friends with everyone. He was such a personable man that you could not want to be around him. We worked many days at the Coastal Carolina Fair and everyone complimented the club on what a great guy he was. He will be sorely missed. RIP my friend

“ My first roommate at Virginia Union. When we met I was going to try out for the football team. He asked me what position I was there to play. I said cornerback. (I was 5 foot & kinda scrawny. He was huge.) Herman told me, "we'll see." The next day at tryouts everyone looked like they played in the NFL. They were BIG! :)

Wonderful frat brother and friend. I had the privilege of going to Charleston & sitting down with him & hearing him preach.

“ Our friend and brother Herman Robinson was a towering light in the lives of so many. A man of God in the purest sense, utterly dedicated to service to others with no concern for himself. Full of knowledge, wit, and humanity, he was an inspiration every time we met, which was regularly for at least 25 years. He was a loving and true friend to me and my family, and a shepherd to his flock and the entire Charleston community. He is irreplaceable, and will be remembered forever. He is surely in Heaven now, and I know my brother is rejoicing at their reunion, as we who remain mourn his passing. Well Done, thou Good and Faithful Servant.—Rob Robertson, Charleston SC

“ Herman Robinson was a frequent attendee and speaker at the Men of Saint James Friday morning prayer breakfast at Saint James Anglican Church on 1872 Camp Road, James Island. We men were blessed to know a Godly man such as Herman Robinson, who passed along his scholarly Bible knowledge and encouragement with passion and emotion. His singing voice warmed our hearts. His bold defense of the Truth of Holy Scripture was a model for America. He was a Brother in Christ and is already missed. Our love in Christ Jesus goes out to Sherilyn and her family. We know that Herman is with Christ now as he is absent the body. Additionally, the men of the Exchange Club of Charleston will miss Herman's dedication to community service and fellowship in Exchange. Shabbat Shalom and God rest Herman's soul. “ Saints fall asleep.. They will rise at the sound of the trumpet to be with the LORD forever. Until then, we praise GOD for having called us to represent HIM in and to our community.

Family: Thank you for allowing the sharing. We are grateful and made better for the many contributions.
