“ My dearest Auntie Alma to whom I affectionately called Auntie Alabama because as a child I couldn't say Alma. You were the Rock and the last of the Golden Girls. God knows we had our good times and shared so many laughs with those personal jokes sharp whitty personality of yours. You held back nothing and everybody knows exactly what they were getting when sitting with you, great advice, lots of wisdom, and lots of love. I will miss those talks, I will miss the food and cakes and I will definitely miss that smile. Rest in Peace dear Auntie. I love you
