“ To pastor Sheila and family- we are so sorry to hear of the passing of Apostle Taylor. We will always remember his testimony and how unashamed he was to tell all of God's blessing to him. He will be sorely missed but another soldier has laid down his weapon and will study war no more! It was a pleasure knowing him. Our prayers are with you and God will comfort you.

“ I am deeply sorry for your loss. Mr. T was a very special person. I will never forget his integrity, his skill as an orthopedic tech and his gift for working with children. His life made an impact on all of us who knew him at MUSC. May he Rest In Peace. Sincerely,
Rosemarie Battaglia

I, too, am very sorry for your loss and agree with Rosemarie Battaglia. "Mr. T's" passing is a loss to anyone who ever knew or had the pleasure of working with him. I was a nurse in the surgery clinic at McClennan Banks and the orthopaedic department could not have functioned without him. He was one of the dearest people I have ever known and always put his patients at ease. Rest In Peace Mr. T! Sincerely, Donna Dawson
