“ I knew Andrea as a quite beautiful spirit and beautiful smile. She always showed a concern and passion about people. I spend time with her on my many visits with her grandmom Dolly and our other family members in South Carolina and Georgia. Rest Andrea!

“ Even though we were First Cousins, she was like an auntie. He is dearly missed be me and I'm sure all who knew her. This world has lost one of its brightest and warmest lights. I love and miss you dearly. Rest on and enjoy your transition.

“ Andrea had a beautiful way of loving people and expressing her care, especially my mother. As my mother grew older, Andrea's care and kindness reached new heights especially when we visited her. She opened her home, giving my mother the extra care and attention she needed, making sure we were always comfortable. This was one of the many ways she expressed love for my mother, and for all of us. Scripture reminds us, "Let us not grow weary in doing good." That verse reflects Andrea's life to the fullest. I will carry Andrea's loving spirit, her kindness and beautiful personality with me always. I am so grateful for the times we spent together and the years she was here with us. I miss her so much!! With much love and gratitude, Delores

“ *I had the pleasure of meeting Andrea many years ago at the wedding of her brother Lemuel aka Maurice to my good friend Toni. I felt her warm spirit even at that initial meeting. I was always a awe of how her siblings looked up to her with such respect and sought her guidance. She always displayed an protective kind and gentle yet commanding presence in what ever space she was in. Such a beautiful blend which was evident in her character as a person. I will always remember our (Harvey and I) visit to her home in South Carolina many years ago. A very special visit with a heap of southern charm and warmth.
We will miss you very much.*

“ Andrea was my cousin by blood, but to me she was my Sister. We shared a closeness that didn't need explanation-it was there. Andrea carried a quiet faith that showed itself through kindness and compassion. She was a helper. She had a gift for helping others, no matter the problem or issue, she had a solution.
