“ Just received the news. We send our belated Hugs and Condolences to Each of You: For words are so hard to express when we hear news of grief such as the loss Miss Annabelle. Isn't it true, we never get use to physically being without our loved ones, whether it's expected or unforeseen, we just learn to cope? I know at different times, you have given your support to others when the need arose. And now this same need comes to you from us, but most important from Jehovah, the God of All Comfort and Hope, at Romans 15:4 quote, “œAll the things that were written aforetime were written..., that through our endurance and through the comfort from the Scriptures we might have hope.œ which includes our loved ones now in his memory. For Jehovah is deeply pained when life is loss no matter the age . He sees and feels all our grief since he "did not purpose" for us to live without our loved ones. As you cope and face other losses, may Jehovah's son, Jesus' words at John 11:11-25 & words of Ecclesiastes 9:5 bring comfort, peace of mind, and hope to each of you when he said our loved ones are now resting (RIP) in a "Peaceful Sleep". And will soon have the wonderful opportunity of having their life physically restored again by him (Jesus), but to an Earth free of grief, diseases, wars, etc. We can trust the future says Numbers 23:19 quote, "God is not a man that he should tell lies.... Has he himself said it and will he not do it...?"
