“ Sending condolences to my Family. Please know that First Gentleman Derrick Milligan and I are thinking of and praying for our Family during this time of bereavement.

To Tony...It seems like only yesterday that you sat next to me at Mom's house on Christmas evening. We shared in a game of gift exchanges. I can still hear your voice and see your face. You teased me about how I grieved Chris's death and now the tears are once again uncontrollable. It still seems so unreal that you are gone. I will miss you always...as I miss so many others that have gone on before you. You and Christopher were like my own children to me. You shall remain in my heart and mind. Love you always Tony.

God's Peace Family,

“ Tony, Jalietta, Quanda & family~

Our heartfelt condolences are with you all during this difficult time. Brusa was a nephew like no other. He was a gentle giant who spoken very little words. He checked in on me once a month and always ensured I was OK. He definitely touched many lives and will be truly missed. Keeping you all in prayer and know that God makes no mistakes.

“ When I was interviewing Anthony (I called him big Tony) for a position at Target he asked me if I knew I had on a brown shoe and a black shoe! It was so embarrassing but hilarious and I knew we needed him on our team! He was always smiling and lit up the room! I'm so sorry for your loss and I hope one day his memories will bring you peace
