“ Arthur Lee “Binks” Bellamy son of the Late Luther Bellamy Sr. and Viola P. Bellamy. “Binks ” as some affectionally call him was born on February 9, 1951 and peacefully answered the master’s call on Thursday January 09, 2020. He was educated in Charleston County Schools. After leaving high school he established a trade as a Drywall Finisher of which he turned into a reputable business .“Binks” was THE #1 Green Bay Packer Fan. There was never a time when he wasn’t representing his team all the way Down to the Tag on any car he drove. Outside of all of his many accomplishments, he was 1 st a family man. On July 13, 1998, he joined Prayer Changes Things Ministries, where he served faithfully as a treasure and prayer warrior. From being a Great Husband, Father , Son, Uncle, and Friend he leaves a legacy that will always be remembered. “Binks” was preceded in death by his parents Luther Sr. (Viola), his brothers Yah Yah Muhammad, Luther Bellamy Jr., Norman “Jay” Bellamy, and Tommy Pryor. He leaves to cherish his memories; his loving wife Clara “Bell” Gathers Bellamy and son Binks D. Bellamy, God daughter Tavonya Swain, his sisters Patricia (Rev. Jack) Lewis, Margaret (Herman) Jackson, Eleanor “Hec” Bellamy, Janet (Reginald) Bellamy – Swain, Sue Pryor wife of deceased brother, his brothers Alfred Pryor, Michael (Donna) Bellamy, David Bellamy, a very special cousin Larry (Janice) Pryor and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends. Mother-in-law, Rosalee Gathers, brothers and sisters in law: Patricia Mckinzie, Judie (Bobby) Jenkins, James (Jacqueline) Gathers, Nathaniel (Sabrina) Gathers, and Joe (Marge) Gathers. Aunts: Emily (Jimmy) McNeil, Martha (Jerry) Phillips, Annabell Porcher, Mae Porcher, Leon (Pamela) Porcher, and Lillian Porcher.
