“ Hope, I know you are going to miss such a fine man God has allowed you to share such great memories with for several years. I know you are going to miss him, but always think about the good times you experienced with him. He is one of a kind and I cherish the moments we spent in church, on the cruise, and times with your family. He will truly be missed but my love is with you always.

I'm just finding out that my dear co-worker passed away a year ago. I'm sending my love and condolences to the family. Arthur was such a sweet young man. I will always remember his beautiful smile and friendship. He was such a great person and a good coworker. I know that his wife and children will miss him dearly but remember he is only resting and we all shall see him again. RIP
