“ My sincere condolences go out to Ms. Caroline's family as well as the Sedgwick family. I worked with Ms. Caroline from the start up until August of 2013. It was very sad to hear of her passing, yet in God's greatness, I was so very thankful that the information was passed along and to see so much love poured out for her from others. Ms. Caroline was a sweet individual and so down to earth! I appreciated her work ethic, kindness and definitely her hugs. We will miss you Ms. Caroline. Thank God for sharing you with us.

“ Caroline was not just a co-worker she was a friend. We prayed for each other and laughed and cut up as well. I will miss her during foot ball season talking about her Bears and my Cowboys. Her laugh was infectious and she was always there to help even when she was already stressed by something else she had to do. I will truly miss her and our office will have to learn a new normal. "Psalm 29:11 The Lord gives strength to his people; the Lord blesses his people with peace." May the Lord grant you peace and comfort during this most difficult time. She will truly be missed.

“ Since I am a bit older than alot of people at Sedgwick, I was appreciative of the respect and kindness that Caroline always showed me. I loved to hear her laugh as it brought a smile to my face. She was a very sweet lady and will be very very missed by everyone here at Sedgwick. She was more than an employee, she was a friend to all. I am blessed that she touched my life.

“ To the family of Caroline. I offer my sincerest condolences. I've worked with her since she first came to our office. The last time I was in office we were cracking up at some of our messes over the years. I'm so grateful we had that moment. Please know she was surrounded by love and friends at Sedgwick. She will truly be missed.

“ From Day 1 at Sedgwick, Caroline had a way of making everyone feel at ease and part of a team. Everytime I saw her since then she had a quick smile and some sassy words. Even in a meeting last week, she gave some sass to a visiting head honcho. Which we all loved! - Melissa W., Sedgwick in Irving, TX

“ Following my supervisor around my first day of work my hands were sweating as I was feeling so nervous. My supervisor sat me at my desk and told me a Ms. Caroline would soon be around to get me set up and she was right, within 15 minutes I had met the one lady who truly put me at ease on my first day of my summer internship with Sedgwick. As she set up my computer she joked with me and told me not to worry I would be fine. She told me to give her shout outs when I saw her and call her whatever I pleased even if it was "what up Ms. C." She made me smile and relax, from that day forward I always looked forward to seeing her. Thank you Ms. Caroline for welcoming me with open arms. I know the time I knew you was very short but I always appreciated it more than you knew. Rest in Peace.

“ Sad is how we all feel here in Irving, TX. Caroline was the life line for our Service Center, she may have told us to open a ticket, but she was there for us sometimes before that was done. When we started our Work at Home Process she helped me accomplish that task with more ease then I thought possible. Not only will I miss her strong work ethic, but her smile, her laugh and her caring ways she brought into work every day. My prayers go out to her family during this time of loss.

“ We are sorry to hear of Caroline's passing. May your family feel the comfort of God's arms around you during this difficult time. We hope your hearts are lifted by the postings you find here; knowing so many will miss Caroline; her laugh, humor, smile; and her calling us “baby.” A void is left in the Irving office. Blessings to your family.

“ Heartfelt condolences to Caroline's family. Her words were the last I heard as I left work last Friday. She was , as usual, helping a colleague. She truly was an uplifting and happy person. You had to smile at her and with her no matter what kind of day you were having. You came away from time with her feeling better about things. How precious is that , to have that type of person to work with each day. Yes, she wil be missed and remembered. ~ Vivian

“ First, my heartfelt thoughts to all of Caroline's family members and close friends regarding her passing. I am stunned and saddened. Caroline was always a joy to work with. She was one busy lady, but every task she handled showed not only her occupational talents and skills, but also her spunk, her humor, her energy, and her kindness and openness.. I ran into Caroline at work not but a couple weeks ago and we were talking and laughing, and we shared a quick happy hug.in passing. If I would have known there would not be another such opportunity, I would have hugged her tighter. The last time I saw Caroline was on June 23rd, in a company town hall meeting. She was wearing a black skirt and top, and was animated about an upcoming project regarding a new and upcoming client. She was very dedicated to her job. She was simply too wonderful to lose this soon. I will miss her very much. She was one classy lady.

To you, Miss Caroline, I will always treasure you. Thank you for touching my life with a kind heart and beautiful smile. Miss you already.

“ I met Caroline at Sedgwick back in 2010. The first day I arrived at work, she came to get my computer set up and working. We hit it off instantly. She made me laughing and we were talking like we had known each other for years. Our friendship continued to grow over the years. I really miss hearing her laugh and crack jokes. She had the best personality. She was always there when you needed her regardless of what mood she was in that day. The Lord has taken back one of his precious Angels. Caroline you will always be missed and remembered. My heart goes out to your family, and may the Lord help them find comfort and peace during their grieving process.

To the parents. Know that you raised a very respectful and kind women who loved life and enjoyed every minute of it.
