“ I knew Cathy for many many years. I bought a lot of baskets from her, beginning in 1979. I loved Cathy and will miss her terribly, as we had some lovely conversations inside her basket stand. Cathy was an extremely talented basket maker and I always knew her stand would be opened if I drove to Mt. Pleasant. Cathy was a lovely person and I feel a great loss since I just learned that she passed away last January. Sending condolences to Cathy's family as I know she is greatly missed. - Laura S. “ *To: The family,
I send my heartfelt condolences as I lit a candle for a wonderful person. Cathy was always willing to lend a helping hand for me. She faithfully picked me up every morning we worked together with wanting nothing in return(I would put the money in between the seats and run out lol). I appreciate all those times you picked me up and the fun we had working at Frankie's. We would find each other just so we can laugh and hide out. I will miss you girlie and always remember the kindness you showed me when I was without!. Rest peacefully... ❤️*
