“ I met Taft in Washington, DC in 1971 through a mutual friend, I always new Taft as a very accommodating friend who would go the whole 9 yards for you.He was a great cook who introduced me to a quite a few of his native Charleston recipes one of note was his barbequed pig feet.and a host of seafood dishes.

R.I.P. my good friend.

My heart was saddened to hear just yesterday Feb. 1, that our friend had passed away. Growing up my mom and dad was his friend, later my husband and I bought his house in Ettrick, va. We rented a uhaul and moved his stuff to Charleston. While there, he showed us the best time. We often speak about going back to visit. Robinson hold a special place in our Hearts ❤️ RIP
