“ I met Ms. Deborah several years ago at Morris Brown AME Church. She was a small woman but full of an incredible amount of knowledge and wisdom. Her commitment to serve made her a beacon of light to the congregation. She will truly be missed. Sandee, my thoughts and prayers are with you and your family today and the many days ahead. John and I are both her to support all of you. I Love You Friend, and Thank God for you.

“ Kim, Sandee, Brianna....so sad to learn of Deborah's passing. Her suffering has now ended and she is now at peace. We know personally how painful the loss of a loved one can be. You will have good days and bad from now on. Take comfort in your warm memories and celebrate a life well lived. Your Mom and Aunt Vermelle would not have it any other way. Always here for you! Gwennie, Gena, Nicholas (in spirit) and Paul.

“ Ms. Deb was one in a million. She was rock, that could not be moved. She was a small women in size but a mighty warrior! She lived a life well loved. I'm sure her own angel, Ms. Vermelle is waiting with open arms. Graceful women. Kim and Cassandra, they left a wonderful legacy. My prayers are with your entire family.
