“ My heartfelt condolences for Mrs Sheppard, children and all his family and close friends. He was a very great guy whom I had the pleasure of meeting around 21 years ago when I used to bring my 2 sons and he would cut their hair. I pray God almighty will keep and comfort you family and hopefully very soon those responsible will be brought to justice. This is not comforting because he is no longer here but o pray soon you will have peace in your hearts and minds

“ There are no words to explain the amount of shock and pain hearing our childhood friend is no longer here with us. A soul so filled with love and compassion; that beautiful bright smile that always greeted you every time you'd see him, will never be forgotten. Our memories, when we think of Dominique is as peaceful and beautiful as a butterfly because that's Dominique. Sending up prayers for the family. Sincerely, from Carmen, Reggie and Pamela (Moultrie street childhood friends).

D...I can't begin to even explain the sorrow I am feeling to know that you are no longer here with us. I am so sorry to lose my friend & brother for over 28 years. You were family, giving my boys their 1st hair cuts to their last. My friend, brother & homie...I will miss you dearly, seeing that beautiful smile, our laughs & you looking like Mr GQ out of the magazine. Until we meet again. May The Work You've Done Speak For You..My family & I love you so, but God Loves you Best. My heart is so so heavy. Sleep on My Brother Sleep On!! We have to accept what God allows, because you were ready.

Dom... No barber cut my hair as good as you did, gonna miss you as my barber, my friend, and one of the truest COWBOYS fan I know. A true Family barber, me, my son, my brother-in-laws, my nephews. You touched all of our Lives in different ways. God truly has an angel, and a darn good barber to boot
