“Hearing of your passing Percy, caused my heart to ache. You were one of my staples whenever I thought of my family on the Alston side. Your bright smile, warm and sincere hugs, and overall positive greetings were always so heart felt...real. I appreciate our welcoming spirit and conversations. YOU are truly missed! I can only pray that you are at peace knowing that your love for family, work, and representation as a man, husband, and father can be surmised in two words...WELL DONE!!!!
