“ To the children: I know what it feels like to lose a mother but please rest assure that she is better now. It will get harder before it gets better but it will get better in time. She is resting in the arms of her God and holding you all at the same time. Please take comfort amongst yourselves and hold on to each other. God have a plan for all of us and it was just her time to fulfill her obligations for him.

Our deepest condolences: Inez ((Cleo) Cooper and family.
