“ Growing up Estelle Geathers aka Alee house was the house I spent most of my time at. She was the one who stopped by on Sunday morning to pick me up for church, the one who had permission to put her foot in my behind if I got out of order which I had so much love and respect for. Not only family but another mom. I visited her one day and we talked about our GOD, I informed her how I finally answered my call as a pastor we praised God together. Gone but always remembered in my heart

“ Hotep, Blessings sending out positive energy your way for healing and spiritual growth and protection, From the Henry'S Family and friends. My Best sister-in-law ever from day one. I enjoyed her company. Her smile and her laughter and her cooking. She would deeply be missed but rest assured she amongst our ancestors now not far away. Just light a candle from time to time and she will see that light. Amen.
