“ Please family and friends accept my condolences and come to have the same confidence in God's word and future promises as the faithful man Job. He knew the TRUE God could heal our loved ones from sickness, make them young again and even bring them back to life. These promises were demonstrated by Jesus while he was on earth, leaving us a glimpse of our what he will do for us on earth in the future! Job 33:24: John 5:28, 29. Isaiah 9:6 Please family and friends accept my condolences and come to have the same confidence in God's word and future promises as the faithful man Job.
