“ Mrs. Scott was a woman of wisdom. Everything she came in the shop, she taught me some valuable lessons, such as "Every man for themselves, but God for us all". She would always say, and I quite " I can't buy any one's friendship....it cost too much. I can remember her coming to church, as I stood at the door, doing hospitality duty; Brenda, make sure I'm right before I go in. I'm gonna miss her telling me about the old days. She was concerned about people loving one another. Sleep on sweet lady. You are already missed. You have fought a good fight.
