“Joyce, Betty Sue and Family: You have our deepest sympathy. Your father was the truest example of a christian believer. We knew him all our younger years growing up in the Bethel AME Family. He touched the hearts of many young people and brought them to Christ through his leadership as Bethel's Sunday School Superintendant. Beyond that, he was one of the nicest person we have ever known. May God bless his soul, and may He comfort you during this sad period of your loss. Our Sympathy and Love, Robert & Margaret Jenkins, Sr.
