“ To the family of Charles and Barney Smalls: Although your hearts are sadden on the lost of your brother George Alston, just know that God is always in your presence and is there to carry you through this difficult time. Please also know that on this earth God is strategic in placing people around you to help provide the support that you need when days and nights seem long; therefore, our family is here for you when you need us. Continue to stay in prayer; stay strong and show God your faith in Him. We promise that the days will get better.
