“ I would like to extend my condolences to the Campbell family. I will always remember George as being gentle, funny and sincere friend. We went to school and was in the band together and Eastside buddies. I will remember his name smile reaching out to his crazy dimples. In all the years that we were friends he has never tried to hurt anyone and that's a beautiful thing to remember that and that he could play a mean tenor saxophone. My friend SIP, Rose White.

“ Barbara and Harry, although I haven't seen any of you in years I am crystal clear on how George use to look, walk and laughed. It saddens me to know he will no longer be on this side of heaven. He was a good person 😞.
