

Mr. Gerald Bernard Geathers

March 19, 1959 - April 7, 2023

Mr. Gerald Bernard Geathers, 64, of McClellanville, South Carolina, entered into eternal rest on Friday, April 7, 2023. He attended Lincoln High School, Class of 1977 and later served honorably in the U.S. Army. He was an entrepreneur who resided in Stone Mountain, Georgia. He was a fun, spirited soul who took on many passions, which included selling jewelry and other women's fashion in the heart of downtown Atlanta. He found comfort in staying with his big sister, Mrs. Betty Bennett while living in the country. He enjoyed capturing nature with his family and friends. His sister, Evangelist Barbara G. Blake, was his confidant and he was a huge protector of his sister Annette Swinton. He showed much love and respect for his brothers, Augustine and Melvin Geathers. His smile was stunning and would light up the whole room. He was preceded in death by his parents, Mr. Augustine Geathers Sr. and Mildred B. Geathers; his youngest sister, Lakesha D. Geathers and his aunt, Mrs. Debra Garrett who was also his fishing buddy. He leaves to cherish his memories, his siblings: Augustine Geathers Jr. (Diane), Betty Bennett (Franklin), Annette Swinton (Richard Jr.), Evangelist Barbara G. Blake (Rev. Clement Blake) and Melvin Geathers (Vernessa). He had a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, endless friends and his long lasting special friend, Shekia Evans. We find peace in knowing that he touched so many lives and he will live in all of our memories. One that we will forever cherish and we will continue to remember.
