“ Sending my condolences to my dear friend Angie and her siblings. My memory of Greg while living in Columbia he used bring myself and my cousin Sharon to Charleston and treat us like his very own sisters. Greg was a caring and giving person who went the extra mile cooking up his specialty food. May his soul rest in peace as I will always remember him.

“ To my brother-in-law, Greg. I will always remember the relationship we had. You would say I see why my brother was in your life, because you have a kind and sweet spirit. You always thought of me for Christmas with something and I always gave you shrimps when you let me know you were coming to town. I am grateful that CJ and I were able to spend time with you a few days before Christmas of 2024. We were coming back again this year, but God had another plan. Love you my brother and we'll meet again. SIP

“ From my family to the Dingle family, "Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning". Greg was my classmate. He was among the best dressed in the Wando High School Class of 1979, which included Willis (RIP) and John (Jap), to name a few. He was a drummer in the Wando Band along with a few of our other classmates including me. I was on the drill team. Greg was such a joy to be around when we went to football games that were away. We had so much fun coming back on the bus and it didn't matter if we won or lost the game. He was always the same person whenever I saw him when he came to Mt. Pleasant to visit. May his soul rest in peace. I know without a shadow of a doubt that the WHSC of '79 loves him but God loves him best. Family, you are in our thoughts and prayers.
