“ Anyone that know Micky knew she was a say it like you mean it lady, she was no nonsense. If she fussed at you she cared about you. As a teenager I was @ Mickey's every chance I got to hang out with Sharon, I know I had to have gotten on Norman's nerve a time or two 😊🤔. It was all love for me. Micky loved her fashion loved dressing and very stylish. There's so much I can say about Mick I'm glad that everytime we talked it ended with I love you, So I'll leave it at that I love you cousin and I will miss you dearly, Rest in Paradise, Love Michelle.

Aunt Mickey you were a bright shining light when ever you were around. I enjoyed our long talks on the phone after you moved to S.C. My mom's bff since I was a child. I know she welcomed you with loving arms. Know how much you missed her. Love you more, just as you always ended hour long conversations. Rip ❤️🌸

“ I remember aunt Hazel walking up to anybody that was chewing gum and make them spit it out. That was one of my fondest memories. It didn't matter if you were a child or an adult. If you were chewing gum in church, she was gonna make you spit it out. I will always have wonderful and fond memories of my dear aunt Hazel I'll see you. I'm sure I'll see you soon. it's so long for now!

“ Hazel's life was a masterful blend of grace, strength, and compassion, a testament to the extraordinary person she was. As a one-of-a-kind sister and friend, she touched hearts and minds with her generosity of spirit. I pray her transition to eternal peace be a celebration of unwavering optimism and the unshakeable hope and faith she shared with us all be illuminated...I will truly miss my friend (Big Red).
