“ Your passing is not a lost, it has aroused the fond memories for me growing up with you a Benjamin on Smith and Radcliffe Streets, the memories are flowing like a powerful stream now. During that era we had fun together we loved one another a depended on each other, hanging out with our friends going to parties, and hanging out at the Colonial Cabin. I will miss you, but you left me a lot of cherished and precious memories, Thank you my brother, I am enjoying some of those memories now, Thank the LORD for making us brothers.
