“ May May, I’m going to miss you more than I can even explain. But I didn’t come on here to be sad, I came on here to share a memory. If anyone knows me, they know I can’t drive to save my life. One day, it was May, Kareem, my niece, Kaleice and myself in the car and we were On the way to meet Wes, Dominique, Corena and her kids at the movies. Well we’re driving along and I have Wes on the Bluetooth and I was looking for the turn I was supposed to make because I’m also bad at directions. Well long story short, I hit the man in front of me, at a stop light out of all places. And here goes me, instantly crying. Jamay was so nice to the man even though he was very mean and there was absolutely no damage to his vehicle, even though he was trying to wipe the car with his hand saying I chipped the paint. So May was like, “My friend has just a lot going on and she didn’t mean to sir. I don’t see any damage, do you think it’s just a little dirt because it’s coming off when you wipe it” this man looked at her like she been speaking a whole other language. He agreed not to call the police and when he drove off, she said “Jewels if I didn’t love you, I woulda curse that man out” Gosh, May May what we gonna do without you. I love you to the heavens and back. You fought the good fight and I’m beyond honored and blessed to call you a friend, but especially to be able to call you family. I love you so much. Fly high baby ❤️

“ *To Jermore Seabrook and the White family, you have my deepest sympathy, but know that God never make a mistake, you have an angel watching over you until you meet her again, I know your hearts are heavy, and the tears are there, but just keep your hands in the master hands and he will see you though.
