“ I am at a loss of words, yet God's word declares that we should give thanks in all things. Brother Baldwin was a kind-hearted and caring man of God. He welcomed me in Stewart Chapel United Methodist Church many years ago. He always gave an encouraging word and was filled with the Holy Spirit. My prayers are with the Family, especially Rev. Beverlyn, Giovanna, Jamie and Levelton. I remember the prayers, the testimonies and the encouragement while serving God and our Stewart Chapel Family, and for that Brother Baldwin, thank you and rest easy! I regret not being able to hear your trial sermon because I know you were called to preach this Word of God! You will be missed. Dana P Richardson
