“ I know that this is a very difficult time for you but please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. I am so sorry to learn of the passing of your most precious loved one James. In times like these it is so hard to find the right words to say. Our hearts are filled with so many different emotions however rest assured our loving heavenly father knows and understands the depth of our pain and the degree of our lost. He assures us that the time will come when we will see our loved ones again by means of the resurrection. John5:28-29 Can you imagine the joy that will fill our hearts at that time? Yes we will have the chance to see them and will never have to worry about saying good bye to them again! May your minds and hearts be at peace as we wait for the fulfillment of all God's promises. They are sure to come true. Isaiah 55:11
