Rashidah, Raychelle, Allen, Janice, Mary Ann, Barbara, I have no words to heal your pain right now but I know a God who can and who will. Sometimes we don't understand how He brings healing into our lives or how grace works but God know where we came from and where we are and sometimes how difficult it is for us to trust Him. My prayer is that you will stand in faith in believing that our Father is good, all the time, and will always do what is best for each of us. " As much as you are able, rest in what trust you have in Him, no matter how small." Janet was a cousin, sister- friend, confidante to me and I love her dearly. RIP Janet ~~~ Your cousin, Debra

“ My Beautiful, Beautiful sister Janet. She was a wonderful sister. We would talk for hours in person or on the phone. She could me me laugh like noone else and when I needed advice about anything, she was the peron I called. We had a bond that noone can understand unless they have a Twin. I always wanted the best for her and she always wanted the best for me. I love you and will miss your presence more than words can say. Love you. RIP, Twin sister.
