“ To my humble loveable brother i will carry you in my heart forever. I be missing moments calling you we will talking about past thing that happen long before my time, most of all your giggle the moments you talk about Mom or my sister those moments I'll were personal for me sharing our ideas or asking questions or opinion loving those moments is priceless. I will give anything to have those moments again and laughter with you. You'll be miss sorry that you didn't get to see my granddaughter but when told her you had . she yell out loud and cry like she knew your personally i knew you both shared some moments over phone but those tears was sad tears. And both cry it don't hit me at time because i could not believe it you're gone, but in a peaceful place where you are going it's call Heaven home rest my humble soul you are home i could see golden gates are opening just for you. Know you are watching over me as rest of my humble soul who are with you. You all will be my guardian Angel watching me and warning, me when danger are near but mean time i will hold your soul in my heart but carry your members for eternity Rest my humble soul your are home love your lil sis
