“ I was saddened to learn of the death of Johnifer. I remember him from the College of Charleston as I was about to graduate and he was an in-coming freshman. I have never known or seen anyone with the musical gift that God blessed him with. My prayer for the family is that God will sustain you as you move through this bereaving period.

“ Johnifer made a great impression on both of our lives. Our college years would not have been the same at CofC or The Citadel if it had not been for our time under his direction on those choirs. We've prayed and thanked God for allowing us to know him and his God given talents. We continue to pray for his family during this time. We know that Johnifer is resting peacefully with The Lord.

“ I was an 18-year-old college Freshman, and musician. Johnifer always encouraged me and my gift for music. When I decided to look for my first apartment, he allowed me to stay with him for a few days until I could move in. During that time, he cooked a dinner I'll never forget, including a baked lasagna with sausage, and a homemade cheesecake. He was a talent, a friend, and certainly a blessing. May the family be comforted by memories that make you smile, and even to laugh.

“ To the family of Johnifer Q Fashion, My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during your time of loss. I'm sitting here reminiscing about my time at the College of Charleston on the Gospel Chior-my best class ever. Johnifer was one of the reasons I stayed at the College of Charleston. He was one of the best choir director/teacher I ever had. He loved his job and enjoyed encouraging, teaching and singing about Jesus. He was a beautiful person with an awesome personality. Celebrate his life and the legacy he left behind. I know I will. Endia Thompson C of C Class of 99

“ Words cannot express how heavy my heart feels as I mourn the loss of Johnifer. He was one the best choir directors I've had and allowed me to grow as a vocalist and instrumentalists. He pushed me to lead my first song in the C of C gospel choir and to play my flute with the choir. He was an awesome mentor. My deepest condolences to the family. We can all rest assure that he is in a far better place and that we will see him on the other side. May God grant you peace that surpasses all understanding and joy in knowing that God is still in control.

“ What can I say? You touched everyone you came in contact with. I loved it when you would just stop playing and look at the choir if we were not paying attention. I appreciate your comments on Facebook whenever you saw one of my commercials. I'm really going to miss you but now you can lead the heavenly choir with a perfect rendition of Jesus Lover of My Soul. Rest well Maestro. May God grant peace and strength to your family and friends you left behind.
