Darryl and Robin, When I saw your mother's obituary in the paper it brought back so many fond memories. I worked as a Head Start teacher's aide during the summers of '65 and '66. I remember so well your mother, who was the secretary at Simonton during that time. I also remember the two of you. You "helped" your mother and even helped around the school with the other children, and I must say taught them a thing or two. That time made a lasting impression on my life. My deepest sympathy on her passing. I know you have wonderful memories that you will cherish always. May God's peace be with you.
