“ Dear Michael;
Seem like it was just yesteryear that we played rock throwing an riding our half flated bikes up an down the lane while our mothers chatted until late in the evening. It seems as though it was yesteryear when we walked into Lincoln an left. It seems as though it was yesterday we talked about our childhood days. And now today ur gone. It is hard to phantom that ur gone but who are we to question the Almighty, for he is Holy and he is God all by him self. Take ur rest Michael for God has called you unto his self to work in his vineyard. I love you cuz an wont let a day go by without reminiscing an thanking THE LORD for the years you was with us.

Prayfully respected
