“ Kelly was my childhood friend. We went all through school starting from elementary Henry P. Archer. He was a funny person, nice but more crazy. To the family sorry for your loss. RIP Kelly.

“ Too many memories to mention here, but Kelly will surely be missed by many! He loved his family and friends and never met a stranger. He may not have gone to church every Sunday, but he definitely knew the all mighty God and believed in him. His smile would light up any room. If a party was dull and he walked in, I promise you, it came to life! He thought he was a rapper at times. Lol.....what he was good at was making people laugh. Just a good Ole stand up guy. Gone way too soon.
