“ My condolences to Ms. Eunice Waddy, Greg and the rest of the family. This is truly shocking! Raised up in the Church was never a dull moment. Your smile and happy go lucky demeanor is what I'll remember along with you being the hardest working employee at UPS. You brought a smile to a lot of people. I'm so happy to have spoken to you during that impromptu call by a family member. SIP ole friend

*To my family...
You have my prayers and condolences during your time of bereavement.
Just remember...God only take his own. Kent was one of the most kind and humble people I've met.
Rest in peace 🕊️

“ To the Beloved Family of Kent Waddy:
I am so sorry to learn about the loss of your Loved One. He was such a kind person with an infectious smile. He was a quiet Gentleman, but his presence was huge without him even speaking a word. May God continue to bless and keep you all through this most difficult interruption. I will keep your family close in my prayers. God is nigh to the broken hearted. I am so sorry...God will take care of you...
Always, Pamela Holmes

“ Seeing this really saddened me. I would stop him in the hallway and say, "Why are you acting like you're working today?" He would reply, "Don't start with me!". I'm grateful that we could laugh with one another. To his family, you have my prayers and sympathy, now and in the days ahead. Rest peacefully.
