“ Kenya I'm sorry you had to leave like that. You didn't do nothing wrong for him to take you like that. He is gonna get what he deserves and when he does he gon rot for that. You loved him so much. I love you Kenya and I'm missing you

“ When I moved to Mt. Pleasant in 2005, I met Kenya and she started doing my hair. Her personality was amazing and her smile was contagious! I loved going to her to get my hair done. It explains why I would often drive 2.5 hours back to Charleston after I moved back to my hometown just to sit in her chair. I am deeply saddened after learning of this news. Kenya will be greatly missed!!!

“ Kenya was one of the most sweetest people when you make contact with her. You surely would be greeted with a smile first before any words could be spoken. We may ask, why? But only the heavenly father knows why! A beautiful soul, gone on to be an even bigger stylist in the Kingdom. Sleep on baby girl, you will be missed!!
