“ My sincere condolences to your family for your most devastating loss. I cannot begin to understand what you must be experiencing. I know that words could never take away your pain. I only pray that God soothe your aching hearts with his beautiful guarantee of a future Paradise when he promises to bring an end to death and to reunite you together again. (Revelation 21:4, 5) You're in my heart and prayers. (Acts 24:15)
