“ I am so sorry and shocked to read of Lawrence's death. He kept the yard at my new home and I generally was not there but on Wednesday, July 3rd, I was home and had a nice long chat with him and found out so much about his previous work in education. I know you are very proud of his accomplishments and I feel the loss with you. He certainly was a gentleman and surely had a strong impact on his students. I pray that his family will have wonderful memories of such a good man to see them through these unexpected circumstances. God Bless, Tommy Thornhill
