“ Condolences to the family of Leonard Johnson. He and I grew up across the street from each other and were the first Black Boy Scout Troop to participate in the SC Scout Jamboree at Johnson Hager Stadium in Charleston, SC. Leonard always visited me when he was in New Orleans and more recently, he brought Lance, along with a Church male group, to my restaurant in Charlotte. I am most appreciative of the time and attention Leonard devoted to my sister, Sandra Goodwin-Harrison , when her health began to fail.
