“ My heart was deeply saddened when I heard that Leroy Lewis gained his wings. I had the pleasure of working very close with Mr Lewis at the College of Charleston. He was very smart, wise and full of wisdom. He was always smiling with a cup of coffee in his hand early in the mornings 😊. But I say to his family he was a great man that impacted the lives of many! I am sure he was met at heavens gate with these words. Well done thy good and faithful servant!!!!

“ My condolences to the family of Leroy. I didn't know him for long and had only been in his presence on several occasions. Each time I was in his company he was always a perfect gentleman, pleasant, witty and kind. I have only heard good things about him and wish that he had lived much longer to enrich the people that he came in touch with. But God k ow best and Leroy is free of pain and if he could come back he would not want to. To his family I say stay strong. Much love, Ruby Parrish Madison Heights, Va.

“ Mr. Lewis, was pivotal in the development of a lot of successful adults through his love, support, and mentorship he provided to many College of Charleston Upward Bound alumni. We were students seeking to better ourselves and he showed us the better of what life had to offer us. He taught us manners, to enjoy life, and most of all to believe in ourselves. Beyond Upward Bound, he always acknowledged me and asked me how I was doing when I saw him. He will be missed. Thank you Mr. Lewis for your dedication to teaching and working with us.

“ Mr. Lewis aka "L squared" was what I called him. He invested so much in me while I was a student at College of Charleston and gave me my first job as a summer counselor then a tutor coordinator for the Upward Bound program. My prayers go out to his family and everyone that knew him. Rest Easy L Squared, you have won the battle!
