“ For the first time I'm speechless. I thank God that you were part of my early upbringing. I would talk your ear off as a kid but you never told me to be quiet. You would just start working on something and ask me to help. For that I thank you. Love you cousin Louis. Rest easy

“ To The Family of Mr. Louis “Pop” Williams,
We are sorry to hear about the earthly loss of a true neighbor “Pop”.
When I moved to the neighborhood 20 years ago, a week later after the move Pop knocked on my door to tell me I had left my car lights on. That night was our 1st meeting and it left me feeling safe and that the neighborhood was made up of good people. To see him ride by on his bike , waving and speaking warm comments as he rode by put smiles upon my face.
When all is said and done, may you find yourselves rejoicing in God’s bountiful blessings of His eternal love thru your beloved father.
