“ My condolences to every family member and friends of Lucille Blunt. She was a humble woman with an affectionate smile. Ms. Blunt was well loved by her family. You will miss her; however, joy will come in the morning (Psalm 30:5). I know some of the family, but not as well as I know Dottie. When it came down to taking care of a mother, her daughter, (Dottie Simpkins) was there for her. This is not to say others wasn't, but I can only speak of what I know personally. She went beyond what might be considered the usual for her mother, but things with a mindset of making her mother happy. There were times when Dottie was going out of town, she had a routine of taking her mother ice cream. She would ask me to do it for her, which I did according to the directions given to me by her daughter, time, flavor and etc. The love she had for her mother, made here want to do the simplest of things to keep her mother on her regular schedule when she was away for a few days. For years, on New Years Eve, she would bring her mother to the church while she enjoyed her Oysters on the outside and Ms. Blunt would be on the inside socializing with me and others with that charming smile that highlighted her grace and humbleness. Ms. Blunt also had a wonderful daughter N law (Daisy Blunt). Daisy was there for her all through the years with Agape love and a giving spirit. Love is action (1 John 3:18). Family, stay together through your time of sorrow and keep in remembrance all the wonderful times you all have shared with your dearly beloved matriarch.
