“ Worked with our Maebel at Woodland Hall until 1989 and she played a huge and dear role in my young life! One precious memory I have is that in 1983 I held my wedding up until she arrived.....I was not getting married until she was there. We were at Alhambra Hall and I stood on the porch watching until she pulled up!
My heartfelt sympathies to all her family as you grieve your loss.....a loss for only a wee little while until you are reunited in the Lord's House!

“ You brought the sunshine that lit up my days,
For when tomorrow comes I will light up the way.
In everyday you think of me, we are not apart,
I'll wrap my wings around you to comfort your heart.
Fill not your heart with pain and sorrow.
But remember me in every tomorrow.

Always with Love, Ann.

“ Spending our lunch hours in Ms. Maebel's trailer hoping for any leftovers this 2/3 year old teacher learned quite a lot. What I and my children learned from Maebel will forever remain our hearts and minds.
Much love,
Orie

“ To the children at Woodland Hall, Maebel was "legend in her own time". She could cook lunch like no other. Moms just couldn't compete with Maebel's culinary skills. The children knew how lucky they were to know "Miss Maebel"
