“ While we did not know Mrs. Mamie Seabrook, we do know her niece, Dr. Gloria Seabrook Wright and we, therefore, know that Ms. Mamie lived a God-fearing, beautiful and treasured life. Her life and the way she lived it was not only a positive example for Gloria but to all who were blessed to share time and space with her. "Thank You" to an awesome and merciful God who ordered the steps of her life.

To Mr. Phillip and all of the family: May the sadness which you may now feel be quickly comforted by God's love and your very fond memories of Mrs. Mamie Seabrook.

Much love, Maggie Wallace Glover and your Morris College Family.

“ My deepest sympathy for Phillip and the family. Mamie was a special person in my life. She had an infectious smile and a great laugh. We had great times playing ring-around-the-rosy at the battery many many years ago. Rest in peace Mamie.

*Love,
Roy Wooten*

“ Ms. Mamie.....Always so kind and friendly to me and to our family when we visited Charleston and St. John's....made me feel loved and at home. You will be missed! You were such a great friend to my mother-in-love and a huge inspiration to the Wallace family. Thoughts and prayers to all the family and friends during this time of bereavement.
