“Margaret, your wings were ready but, my heart was not. Margaret, my soul sister, we had a unique emotional and spiritual connection. God allowed our paths to cross more than 20 years ago. This blossomed into a sister/ sister relationship. We prayed for each other, understood each other, and encouraged and supported each other. I loved you Margaret because you were genuine; in other words you kept it 100, you had zero tolerance for foolishness, you appreciated the little things and the small acts of love. I could always count on you. You were my one call that's all. I'm going to miss our talks and us sharing our menus. Your work down here is done, rest easy my sister. You will forever be in my memories. Loving you forever. Your sister and bubba...

“ The Lord was the strength of Margaret's life. She was a very strong independent no nonsense person. She was reliable and dedicated to any task she took upon herself to do. Margaret enjoyed cooking and always added a little love to her food. If you wanted a good laugh just call Margaret. She had a wonderful sense of humor and a beautiful smile.

You have fought a good fight. You finished your course. You kept the faith.

Rest in peace my friend.
