“ Auntie Marie

*When I was hopeless, you were there.
You picked me up; you showed me care.
Without the love you had for me
God only knows where I would be.*

*To me, you were a second mom,
a person I drew wisdom from.
In my corner every fight,
you always cared that things were right.*

*I won't forget the things you've done.
I felt like your adopted daughter.
I remember sitting st Mt. Sinai waiting for your shift to end.*

Our girls trip one Saturdays Riding the 110 bus to 114th street to have our hair and nails done.

*Or us hanging out with your girlfriends. Mrs Bell and Ms. Jean.
Growing up I didnt come to realize that this was the origin of my name BELverGEAN. Shere "ver" came is still unknown. Lol
I am going to miss you Auntie Marie
Love always Belvergean Thyme Fordham-Price*
