“ Met Mark several years ago while he was working with his brother at my home. Mark appeared to be a quiet gentle soul, almost humbling.

As time passed on various occasions we would have conversations that went beyond Good Morning and Good Afternoon. My prayers go out to the Gray family and especially to his brother Henry who not only will miss his brother Mark, but a work companion as well.

Met this young helpful man of God many moons ago... any time I needed assistance with my grands at the Awendaw center or at the Awendaw park he would always reach out and guide them safely back to me 😊 a very humble man and would crack a little smile especially with his eyes 👁️ you will surely be missed by the Ketchens family. May the good Lord grant you peace and comfort in heaven and may the Lord grant each of your family members a special blessing to hold on to your precious memories daily. 🙏🙏🙏
