“ To the Ellington family, particularly Shev's wife and children. We share in your sadness in the passing of a good man. I had the pleasure of befriending him at USC and feel that I am better because of knowing him. He will be missed but we are certain that our God will keep you strong and comfort you in the days ahead. Your entire family is in our prayers.

Sincerely,

Rev. Marcus R. Allen

“ Our friendship isn't measurable, our love for one another has always been unconditional and we will forever keep you in our hearts. This loss is by far one of the largest we've faced and through prayer we are looking for relief. Our family will remain your family because this bond we've built will never vanish. Sharon, my best friend, Lil Shev, and my God Baby Meagan always know that we are here for you and love you beyond infinity. To Marshevis Sr.'s parents and sisters know that we love you and will continue to be apart of your great family. Love you all!

“What we have once enjoyed, we can never lose. All that we love deeply becomes part of us.” Shevis, Sharon, Lil Shevy, and Megan are family and we are deeply hurt at the passing of Marshevis Sr. We will miss the good times; the friendships that blossomed in college thrived through the journey of life. We love you Marshevis Sr. and we will forever honor the friendship and continue to cherish the bond between our families. God

“ To The Ellington /Manigault Family so sorry to hear about Marshevis' passing. While still in utter disbelief, I know that God only takes the best, and Shevis was indeed the best. On Christmas Eve we were all sitting around talking and Shevis' was just full of joy and laughter, but that was simply Shevis. Saying prayers for you all, and please know that the heavens have indeed received a special person. Tami L. Taylor, Esq.
