“ My condolences in the loss of your loved one. May you be comforted by the words found at Psalm 147:3 which says: He (God) heals the brokenhearted; He binds up their wounds. Also the words at Isaiah 33:24 which says: And no resident will say: "I am sick". The people dwelling in the land will be pardoned for their error. May these scriptures bring comfort and calmness of heart to you at this time of bereavement.

“ I remember meeting Ms. Helen on her visit to Abu Dhabi where we celebrated her birthday. She reminded me so much of my own grandma that I was instantly drawn to her. When she left, I always asked about her. She will be missed.

Her trip to AD was such a special moment for her. Not much time passed without her asking about each person she met on her trip. Thank you for being one of those people

There are too many memories to share as I was one of her "other" children. I loved her like I loved my own mother and will cherish the relationship that we had for the rest of my life. From my aunt Helen I learned how to care about everyone and how to always try to extend a helping hand to anyone in need. Sleep on my angel.

Praying God's love will comfort your soul, and bring you peace at this very difficult time. Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal. Your mother was a very special person. She will be deeply missed.

I have had the joy of working with Mrs. Robinson when she served as a Foster Grandparent for several years. She was dedicated to the program, the children and the staff at The Pink House where she served so diligently. She was very supportive of me during my tenure as Director of the FGP as well as other personal trials in my family. I am saddened by the news of her passing but I believe she has entered into eternal joy because of her life living while she was here on earth. Let us too live to serve others as she has committed herself to do. May God Bless each and everyone and please know that I am praying for you.
