“ I was Mother’s daughter-in-law for several years. She was an amazing woman who shared her love and wisdom. When I think about unconditional love, I think of Mother. Long after I was no longer her daughter-in-law, I would still visit Mother and we would share joy, laughter and the challenges of life with each other. I will always love you and have fond memories of our times together. Peace and comfort to the entire Jenkins family.

Love,

Debra
